

Aboriginal Business's

CTG Services - Coonamble Aboriginal Health Service (CAHS) is seeking Expressions of Interest from Business of any field which may support CAHS in service Provision across our Region.

CTG Health Services covers communities from Coonamble, Gilgandra, Dubbo, Gular, Quambone, Wellington, Narromine, Nyngan, Coonabarabran, Mudgee, Warren and all small communities in between.

CAHS are seeking businesses that will work with and for our communities. Business that are Compassionate, Connected and Culturally safe.

Aboriginal Business play a vital role with our workforce, community and economic development as well as employment. If you are an Aboriginal business in any field, Hospitality, Arts, Cultural Tours, the Trade Industry, Plumbers, Builders and Sparkies. Please register your business with CAHS.

NOTE: This is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander Procurement Notice aligned to the 2021 Aboriginal Procurement Policy January 2021. Authorised by Section 14 of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977, NSW.

1. Key Selection Criteria

- Evidence of Business registration as a Aboriginality or Torres Strait Islander Business (NB: applicants race is a genuine occupational qualification and is authorised by Section 14 of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977, NSW)
- Reporting on numbers of FTE employment opportunities for Aboriginal People.
- Knowledge and experience of Aboriginal Protocols
- Participation in Cultural Events

2. Additional Factors

- Reconciliation Action Plan or working towards developing one.

All applications must include a cover letter addressing all Key Selection Criteria and Additional Factors

All applications can be sent to PhilN@Cctgservices.com.au This is an open EOI.